

You have the right to breastfeed in public

North Dakota law states a woman may breastfeed her child in any public or private location.

(ND Century Code: 23-12-16, 2009)

THANK YOU for breastfeeding your baby!

You have the right to pump at work

Federal law requires employers to provide workplace support for breastfeeding employees, including:

- a reasonable break time to pump breast milk
- a private place to pump, other than a restroom

For more information, visit:

www.ndhealth.gov/breastfeeding/laws

